Topic SANDAG's "Sustainable Communities Strategy" Program

Speaker Charles "Muggs" Stoll
Director of Land Use and Transportation Planning
SANDAG

Charles Stoll, more commonly known as "Muggs", is the Director of Land Use and Transportation Planning for the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) in San Diego, California. He directs a team of over 30 professionals in developing critical land use and transportation planning initiatives for the San Diego region, such as the 2050 Regional Transportation Plan and the first Sustainable Communities Strategy pursuant to Senate Bill 375 in the State of California. Previously, Stoll was the TransNet Program Manager and interim Communications Director for SANDAG. Stoll joined SANDAG in April 2007 after spending over twenty years with the California Department of Transportation in their San Diego District Office where he gained experience in many functional units including project development and environmental analysis. Stoll received a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in Civil Engineering in 1983 and a Master's degree in Business Administration (M.B.A.) in 1985. Both degrees were earned at San Diego State University. He has been a Registered Professional Engineer in the State of California since 1988 and is active in the Transportation Research Board (TRB) as Chair of the TRB Environmental Analysis in Transportation Committee (ADC10). He has been married to his wife Julie for over 27 years and has one 19 year-old son who is a sophomore at Loyola University in Chicago and another 16 year-old son who is a junior in high school.
